Pentecost Blessings

Today we celebrate how Christ continues to fulfil His promise that the Holy Spirit would come to equip His church and bring people to faith in Christ. The color red reminds us not only of the fiery tongues on the heads of the disciples the first Pentecost, but also the blood of those who gave their lives in Biblical days and ever since rather than to deny Christ. May the Spirit continue to move mightily among us!

150+ 1 Celebration:

Thanks!

Thanks to the committee and all who helped make “Founder’s Day” a great way to remember and celebrate faith and dedication last week. If you did not get to attend the Memorial service at Lutheran Cemetery, copies are available at the Welcome Center.

Our next event is our “former vicar” reunion set for June! Look forward to more news, but put the date in your calendar!

Monday Worship to Tuesday

Due to Memorial Day, worship will take place Tuesday, June 1, not Monday, May 31.

About Masks

The Elders on May 6 discussed mask-wearing in church and have recommended taking away the requirement and allowing people to make their own decisions. Those who have been vaccinated may choose not to wear them, which is consistent with the revised guidance of the CDC, but some may choose to wear them, which is perfectly fine. By now, everyone who wants to be vaccinated has had the chance to do so, which includes our pastors and church staff. While masks are not required, respect for the decisions of others about wearing them is expected. Thank you!

Celebrate Patriotism and Our Veterans!

Operation Centurion Shield will be having an event on May 26th at 1:30 pm! Come out and listen to a panel conversation with some of the veterans in the congregation while enjoying some great deserts and beverages!

We hope to see you there!

Pentecost

John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15: Jesus told His disciples that when the Holy Spirit comes, He will testify about Jesus. He also said that they would be strengthened to testify about Him as well. What a privilege they had, and we also have, with the Spirit's help, to testify about our loving and forgiving Jesus.

Great Commission
